

Mind Matter: Trauma in the Classroom and how to respond...not React!

The goal of this workshop is to equip educators with strategies to understand trauma and its effect on the educational environment. Educators will be able to understand how trauma affects information processing, compliance and the overall view of relationships. We will discuss strategies to:

- Discuss trauma in an explorative manner
- Identify trauma behavior in their classrooms
- Respond to students empathetically
- Build Relationships
- Promote restorative practices

